Please Note: This initiative is not affiliated with the Building Futures for Youth Program. Regrettably, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the BFY program was cancelled for the summer of 2020. This initiative will promote suitable job opportunities to youth who've expressed interested in the trades and careers in construction.

You will not be matched with a student. Employers will be responsible for vetting potential youth employees and ensure their safety training. There is no teacher supervision, school insurance or wage subsidy available.
